Introductions

- Your name
- Your RETAIN state
- How long you have been working on RETAIN
- What you do for RETAIN

In the chat, post:

- One thing you love (or hate) about data

Why Take Part in a Community of Practice?

The purpose of this community of practice (CoP) is for us to share and learn from each other by:

- connecting and building relationships with RETAIN state staff in data-centric roles;
- sharing best practices, challenges, and thought partnership specific to data;
- identifying new strategies to overcome challenges or enhance existing efforts; and
- receiving support and information relevant to your work.

Setting Norms

Norms set clear expectations for how you participate, contribute, and interact with one another.

Setting norms can ensure that:

- everyone feels that they will be heard,
- attention is paid to inclusive behavior, and
- there is space and time for questions and contributions from everyone.

Data Roundtable Topics

In Jamboard, I have included some sample topics.

- Add additional topics.
- Mark next to the topics you are most interested in.

In the chat, indicate which of these ideas you think we should cover in the next CoP.
